

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Jun. 11, 2010

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Jerry Enzler, 563-599-0259

Enzler to Chair National Panel

Dubuque, Iowa – June 5, 2009— Jerry Enzler, Executive Director of the National Mississippi River Museum & Aquarium will chair a panel in Washington D. C. on June 11 entitled “All Farms Are Coastal,” as part of NOAA’s Capitol Hill Ocean Week. Enzler will speak on the Museum & Aquarium’s Rivers to the Sea national education outreach.

Speaking on Enzler’s panel will be Congressman Sam Farr of California, Co-Chair of the House Oceans Caucus; Dr. Gary Matlock, Director of NOAA National Centers for Coastal Ocean Science; Don Parrish, Senior Director for Regulatory Relations, American Farm Bureau Federation; and Dave White, Chief of the Natural Resources Conservation Service at USDA.

Other speakers at the conference include Robert Ballard, the explorer who found the Titanic, and several other distinguished scientists and water leaders.

-END-